2009 MC SPARKLING SHIRAZ

"Clear crimson-purple; while made using traditional method, the wordy back label doesn't disclose either the date of tirage nor that of disgorgement; it is a gloriously high-toned shiraz, its spice and licorice flavours highlighted by the secondary fermentation, resulting in elegance and intensity."

94 POINTS, JAMES HALLIDAY, AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION, MAY 2014

"Sparkling Shiraz is a tricky balancing act between succulent fruit, subtle sweetness, understated oak, lush tannins and lively acidity, and Kym Teusner has nailed it here, Vibrant blueberries meet licorice and dark chocolate."

95 POINTS, TYSON STELZER, BAROSSA LIVING, AUTUMN 2014

"Remarkably fresh fruited but it's not all about primary, juicy character. Drinking chocolate, new leather, spiced orange peel, licorice and nuts accompany the cherry-berry fruits and plums. Depth of savoury flavour with plenty of drying, silty tannin. No cloying dosage. Oak is situated adroitly within the overall package. Persistent, delicious, clean and moreish."

"Anyone trust me reviewing sparkling Shiraz? Do you feel lucky punk? Well do you? Blackberry, leather, dark chocolate, coconut and lathed sweet wood. Full bodied, dark and salty, pretty dry – tannic and grunty – not sweet. VERY MUCH A BAROSSA SHIRAZ WITH SOME BUBBLES. There's a bit of spice and red fruit perkiness, but the emphasis here is on salty meat and dark fruit. Has a tiny hit of Port like perfume and intensity coming through on the finish. I love that it's dry, but it's not very refreshing. Solid."
